High School Completion Status

Your FAFSA has been selected for the Federal Verification Process requiring verification that you have completed high school or the equivalent before you are eligible for federal student aid. Please provide one of the following documents that indicates your high school completion status, including the effective date of that status, to confirm federal aid eligibility when the student begins college in 2025-2026:

- A copy of the student's high school diploma.
- A copy of the student's final official high school transcript that shows the date when the diploma was awarded.
- A copy of the student's General Educational Development (GED) certificate or GED transcript.
- An academic transcript that indicates the student successfully completed at least a two-year program that is acceptable for full credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- For homeschooled students:
 - If State law requires a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a copy of that credential.
 - If State law does not require a homeschooled student to obtain a secondary school completion credential for homeschool (other than a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent), a transcript or the equivalent, signed by the student's parent or guardian, that lists the secondary school courses the student completed and documents the successful completion of a secondary school education in a homeschool setting.

Note that the Financial Aid Office will attempt to obtain this document from the Admissions Office or the Registrar, but you can expedite processing of your eligibility by responding upon receipt of this request.
